

Cyber Engineering Consultant

Job ID: A007

Job Description

Responsible for delivery of professional services in the Cyber Innovation and Engineering field to meet company's objectives of profitability, customer success and stakeholder experience.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Professional Service Delivery:
 - Lead and perform billable consulting assignments as needed
 - Partnering with the Practice Managers, ensure successful delivery of professional service engagements to clients
 - Keep abreast of the latest developments in the field and be ready to learn new things
- Solutions and IP Development:
 - Contribute to the development of new ideas, technology solutions and intellectual property
 - Conduct research and proactively communicate with the internal teams on the customer needs, emerging opportunities and areas of development
- Marketing and Sales Support:
 - Provide marketing and sales support to the Directors and Practice Managers as needed
 - Contribute to marketing collaterals to deliver differentiating customer experience
- Organisational Development:
 - Partnering with the Practice Managers, contribute to internal organisational maturity, certifications and accreditations

Desirable Qualification:

- Demonstrated expertise and/or industry certifications in Industrial Internet of Things, Industrial Robotics, Cyber Manufacturing, PLM, Automation and Data Science
- Entrepreneurial passion to develop innovative solutions
- Strategic thinker, technology generalist and change agent

Check out Sucoso Careers to become a master of your own progress!